

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of stations
promoting their own agenda.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, and
provide one sided
political programs
without a balanced
alternative view we need to stop this inorder to keep the
airways serving the public not simply the corporations
that own them. We are a democratic society and need to keep our airways
from becoming otherwise.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
